

I am concerned that there has been so little debate and discussion on this very important issue that not only has an impact on broadcast content, but can also impact on the health and safety of communities who are losing local programming capacity. If there is deregulation of ownership, that must be accompanied by regulation of content and provision of local news and public service announcements. The marketplace will NOT adjust to accommodate these needs. Kari Hastings